

Goal Outline for Economics

1. Be able to identify, analyze, and present projects dealing with all of the following items: consumers, producers, savers, investors, workers, voters, and government.
2. Be able to identify, analyze, and present projects dealing with all of the following items: scarcity and economic reasoning, the role of financial institutions, economic stabilization, trade, supply and demand, prices, and profits.
3. Be able to explain the history of economics in the United States and have some knowledge on other economies in other countries.
4. Understand how to start and run a business and be familiar with costs and profits.